

Offline-First Data Synchronization System Architecture

IF local route exists, no network -> show local route and send the request into the queue, after queued result is back take action

IF local route exists, network available then validate ->
IF still local route active then show -> local route
IF it is not valid now -> fetch new routes and show

IF no local routes exists -> fetch new ones and show result

